For those of you who prefer staying in hotels, we have arranged some package deals with local hotels. The Eden City Hotel and the Hotel Friesland still have rooms available at special tournament prices; check www.eulevoto.net for more information.

Getting there & around

Groningen is a compact city, which can be reached by road, train or airplane. If you arrive by train or airplane, public transportation can be used to reach all venues. For only €2,- you can park as long as necessary and take the bus into the city with a maximum of five persons. More information on parking is available on our website.
